

The New Podcast, Science For Care, Takes You Behind the Scenes of the Medical Breakthroughs that Changed Patients' Lives

Paris, July 28, 2022 - HealthTech For Care, with the support of MedShake Studio, is very pleased to announce the launch of Science For Care, a podcast unveiling the stories behind the scientific and medical breakthroughs that accelerated innovation for patients.

Science For Care is a new podcast launching on July 28, and propelled by HealthTech For Care, the non profit organization designed to support and promote access to care for all. The podcast gives the floor to the greatest discoverers and entrepreneurs of innovative solutions in healthcare. Its objective is to allow its listeners to learn and understand the stories behind amazing scientific and technological innovation under development or already used to bring care for all.

We will bring you along 8 episodes to understand more on mRNA discovery, women's health, rare diseases, innovation in clinical trials, and more! All these stories and interviews, narrated by Anca Petre alongside scientists, researchers, medical doctors, entrepreneurs, and patients are proof that we must continue to invest in research, no matter how uncertain it seems today. Because tomorrow, it might just change the world!

"I am very proud to launch Science For Care. A podcast is a novel way of communication fitting perfectly with our mission of general interest by spreading information to a large community... We hope to interest many listeners and to share expertise and knowledge for all."

Maryvonne Hiance, President of HealthTech For Care

In the first episode, we'll be talking about mRNA vaccines and Dr Katalin Karikó, the great scientist behind this discovery. Listeners will learn how the story behind mRNA vaccines is one of faith, determination and perseverance.

We would like to thank all speakers who participated to Science For Care. Without their contribution, HealthTech For Care won't have the pleasure to share this podcast.
