HEALTHTECH INNOVATION DAYS

HealthTech Innovation Days (HTID®) AT A GLANCE

HTID®, organized by the HealthTech For Care endowment fund, on October 24th and 25th, 2023, is offering an auspicious place to exchange to innovation and science sector actors, in order to lead solutions faster to their patients and position them in the center of innovation. The 5th edition will take place in Paris, at the HealthTech Space, and also virtually, on October 27th only. HTID® combines meetings between companies, investors, industrial and pharmaceutical companies, and more generally all industry stakeholders, including patients and patient associations. Moreover, conferences on major topics of general interest are hosted by international experts and are accessible to all on HTFC endowment fund website after the event.
